Flesh And The Ideal:

Flesh and the Ideal Alex Potts, 1994-05-01 Johann Joachim Winckelmann 1717 1768 one of the most important figures ever to have written about art is considered by many to be the father of modern art history This book is an intellectual biography of Winckelmann that discusses his magnum opus History of the Art of Antiquity in the context of his life and work in Germany and in Rome in the eighteenth century Flesh and the Ideal Alex Potts, 2000-01-01 Winckelmann's writing has a richness and density that take it well beyond the bounds of the simple rationalist art history and Neo classical art theory with which it is usually associated He often seems to speak disturbingly directly to our present awareness of the discomfiting ideological and psychic contradictions inherent in supposedly ideal symbolic forms The Sculptural Imagination Alex Potts, 2000-01-01 Potts also offers a detailed view of selected iconic works by sculptors ranging from Antonio Canova and Auguste Rodin to Constantin Brancusi David Smith Carl Andre Eva Hesse and Louise Bourgeois key players in modern thinking about the sculptural The impact of minimalism features prominently in this discussion for it disrupted accepted understanding of how a viewer interacts with a work of art thereby placing the phenomenology of viewing three dimensional objects for the first time at the center of debate about modern visual art Jacket American Poultry Journal, 1922 Archives of Flesh Robert Reid-Pharr, 2016-12-13 Enlists the principles of post humanist critique in order to investigate decades of intimate dialogues between African American and Spanish intellectuals In Archives of Flesh Robert Reid Pharr reveals the deep history of intellectual engagement between African America and Spain Opening a fascinating window onto black and anti Fascist intellectual life from 1898 through the mid 1950s Reid Pharr argues that key institutions of Western Humanism including American colleges and universities developed in intimate relation to slavery colonization and white supremacy This retreat to rigidly established philosophical and critical traditions can never fully address or even fully recognize the deep seated hostility to black subjectivity underlying the humanist ideal of a transcendent Manhood Calling for a specifically anti white supremacist reexamination of the archives of black subjectivity and resistance Reid Pharr enlists the principles of post humanist critique in order to investigate decades of intimate dialogues between African American and Spanish intellectuals including Salaria Kea Federico Garcia Lorca Nella Larsen Langston Hughes Richard Wright Chester Himes Lynn Nottage and Pablo Picasso In the process Reid Pharr takes up the African American Spanish Archive in order to resist the anti corporeal anti black anti human biases that stand at the heart of Western Humanism Letters, 1929 The Book of All Flesh James Lowder, 2001 Flesh of My Flesh Kaja Silverman, 2009-10-28 What is a woman What is a man How do they and how should they relate to each other Does our yearning for wholeness refer to something real and if there is a Whole what is it and why do we feel so estranged from it For centuries now art and literature have increasingly valorized uniqueness and self sufficiency The theoreticians who loom so large within contemporary thought also privilege difference over similarity Silverman reminds us that this is but half the story and a dangerous half at that for if we are all individuals we are doomed to be rivals and enemies A much older story one that prevailed through the early modern era held that likeness or resemblance was what organized the universe and that everything emerges out of the same flesh Silverman shows that analogy so discredited by much of twentieth century thought offers a much more promising view of human relations In the West the emblematic story of turning away is that of Orpheus and Eurydice and the heroes of Silverman s sweeping new reading of nineteenth and twentieth century culture the modern heirs to the old analogical view of the world also gravitate to this myth They embrace the correspondences that bind Orpheus to Eurydice and acknowledge their kinship with others past and present The first half of this book assembles a cast of characters not usually brought together Friedrich Nietzsche Sigmund Freud Marcel Proust Lou Andr as Salom Romain Rolland Rainer Maria Rilke Wilhelm Jensen and Paula Modersohn Becker The second half is devoted to three contemporary artists whose works we see in a moving new light Terrence Malick James Coleman and Gerhard Richter

The Language of the Muses Miranda Marvin, 2008 Since the Renaissance it has been generally accepted that almost all Roman sculptures depicting ideal figures were copies of Greek originals This text traces the origin of this idea to the academic belief in the mythical perfection of now lost Greek art

The Doctrine of the Apocalypse Hermann Gebhardt, 1878

Behold the Man Colleen Conway, 2008-05-07 In this book Colleen Conway looks at the construction of masculinity in New Testament depictions of Jesus She argues that the New Testament writers necessarily engaged the predominant gender ideology of the Roman Empire whether consciously or unconsciously Although the notion of what constituted ideal masculinity in Greek and Roman cultures certainly pre dated the Roman Empire the emergence of the Principate concentrated this gender ideology on the figure of the emperor Indeed critical to the success of the empire was the portrayal of the emperor as the ideal man and the Roman citizen as one who aspired to be the same Any person who was held up alongside the emperor as another source of authority would be assessed in terms of the cultural values represented in this Roman image of the manly man Conway examines a variety of ancient ideas of masculinity as found in philosophical discourses medical treatises imperial documents and ancient inscriptions Manliness in these accounts was achieved through self control over passions such as lust anger and greed It was also gained through manly displays of courage the endurance of pain and death on behalf of others With these texts as a starting point Conway shows how the New Testament writings approach Jesus gender identity From Paul s early letters to the Gospels and Acts to the book of Revelation Christian writings in the Bible confront the potentially emasculating scandal of the cross and affirm Jesus as ideally masculine Conway s study touches on such themes as the relationship between divinity and masculinity the role of the body in relation to gender identity and belief in Jesus as a means of achieving a more ideal form of masculinity This impeccably researched and highly readable book reveals the importance of ancient gender ideology for the interpretation of Christian texts

The Spirit Poured Out on All Flesh Amos Yong, 2005-07 Offers a fascinating look at Pentecostalism s place in global theology and shows how Christians from other traditions can benefit from recent developments in Pentecostal theology From Marble to Flesh Arnold Victor Coonin, 2014 About the author A Victor Coonin is James F Ruffin Chair of Art at Rhodes College He has received fellowships and grants from the Mellon Kress and Fullbright foundations and has served on committees for the Fullbright National Endowment for the Humanities and College Art Association Author of numerous articles and editor of 2 books this is his first monograph Publisher's website The Redemption of Love Carrie A. Miles, 2006-04-01 Competing answers to dilemmas involving love sex marriage and family scream to us from nearly everywhere The Redemption of Love reveals what the Bible has to say about these issues by applying the growing economic study of religion Using Genesis Jesus Paul and the Song of Songs Carrie Miles outlines a consistent description of biblical love throughout Scripture asserting that it is the only effective solution in today's battle to save marriage and family This book is a valuable tool for clergy and laypeople Warm Flesh, Cold Marble David Bindman, 2014 This brilliant book focuses on the aesthetic concerns of the two most important sculptors of the early 19th century the great Italian sculptor Antonio Canova 1757 1822 and his illustrious Danish rival Bertel Thorvaldsen 1770 1844 Rather than comparing their artistic output the distinguished art historian David Bindman addresses the possible impact of Kantian aesthetics on their work Both artists had elevated reputations and their sculptures attracted interest from philosophically minded critics Despite the sculptors own apparent disdain for theory Bindman argues that they were in dialogue with and greatly influenced by philosophical and critical debates and made many decisions in creating their sculptures specifically in response to those debates Warm Flesh Cold Marble considers such intriguing topics as the aesthetic autonomy of works of art the gender of the subject the efficacy of marble as an imitative medium the question of color and texture in relation to ideas and practices of antiquity and the relationship between the whiteness of marble and ideas of race

Friends at My Table Alice Hart, 2013 Recipes for a year of eating drinking and making merry Cover Flesh in Armour Leonard Mann, 2008 Drawn in part from the author's combat experience in France during WW I the novel is an exploration of the lives of soldiers in the Australian Imperial Force from the Ypres campaign in 1917 until just before the Armistice The plot follows three soldiers in the same battalion Charl Bentley a naive and handsome raw recruit eager for combat Frank Jeffreys a schoolteacher whose intellect and anxiety have led to disillusionment and Jim Blount a resourceful and courageous warrior hero who remains undaunted by battle despite being wounded The novel bears an unmistakable Australian point of view particularly in its wry sense of humor in spite of the dark subject matter and in its vehement disdain for British commanders who viewed the AIF volunteers as disposable Grace Lewis Sperry Chafer, 1995 Chafer deals systematically and thoroughly with the doctrine of grace The text is extensively indexed by subject and Scripture reference The National Druggist, 1920 The Kingdom of Heaven Jesse Henry Jones, 1871
